STIPULATED
CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT AND
PROTECTIVE ORDER

HENRY J. RICARDO, Magistrate Judge:

WHEREAS, all of the parties to this action (collectively, the “Parties” and each individually, a “Party”) request that this Court issue a protective order pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) to protect the confidentiality of nonpublic and competitively sensitive information that they may need to disclose in connection with discovery in this action;

WHEREAS, the Parties, through counsel, agree to the following terms; and

WHEREAS, this Court finds that good cause exists for issuance of an appropriately tailored confidentiality order governing the pretrial phase of this action;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Parties to this action, their respective officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, any other person in active concert or participation with any of the foregoing, and all other persons with actual notice of this Order will adhere to the following terms, upon pain of contempt:

1. With respect to “Discovery Material” (i.e., information of any kind produced or disclosed in the course of discovery in this action) that a person has designated as “Confidential” or “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” pursuant to this Order, no person subject to this Order may disclose such Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only Discovery Material to anyone else except as expressly permitted hereunder.

2. The Party or person producing or disclosing Discovery Material (each, “Producing Party”) may designate as Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only only the portion of such material that it reasonably and in good faith believes consists of:

- (a) previously non-disclosed financial information (including without limitation profitability reports or estimates, percentage fees, design fees, royalty rates, minimum guarantee payments, sales reports, and sale margins);
- (b) previously non-disclosed material relating to ownership or control of any non-public company;
- (c) previously non-disclosed business plans, product-development information, or marketing plans;
- (d) trade secrets or other confidential proprietary, commercial, or sensitive business information;
- (e) any information of a personal or intimate nature regarding any individual, including but not limited to confidential personal information that is protected by a right of privacy under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”);
- (f) any other category of information given confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only status by this Court after the date of this Order.

3. A Producing Party may designate Discovery Material as “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” if it believes in good faith that disclosure to persons other than those listed in Paragraph 10 would create a substantial risk of economic injury that could not be avoided by less restrictive means, such as trade secrets, financial projections or modeling, pricing proposals, or profit and sales figures.

4. If a Producing Party's counsel reasonably and in good faith believes a document or information to be Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Discovery Material, or otherwise requiring protection, counsel shall make such designation at the time of disclosure.

5. Where marking every page of such material is not reasonably practicable, such as with certain native file documents, a Producing Party may designate material as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" by informing the receiving party in writing in a clear and conspicuous manner at the time of production of such material that such material is designated.

6. With respect to the Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only portion of any Discovery Material other than deposition transcripts and exhibits, the Producing Party or its counsel may designate such portion as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" by: (a) stamping or otherwise clearly marking as "Confidential" or "Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" the protected portion in a manner that will not interfere with legibility or audibility; and (b) producing for future public use another copy of said Discovery Material with the confidential information redacted.

7. A Producing Party or its counsel may designate deposition exhibits or portions of deposition transcripts as Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Discovery Material either by: (a) indicating on the record during the deposition that a question calls for Confidential information, in which case the reporter will bind the transcript of the designated testimony in a separate volume and mark it as "Confidential Information Governed by Protective Order;" or (b) notifying the reporter and all counsel of record, in writing, within 30 days after a deposition has concluded, of the specific pages and lines of the transcript that are to be designated “Confidential” or “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” in which case all counsel receiving the transcript will be responsible for marking the copies of the designated transcript in their possession or under their control as directed by the Producing Party or that person’s counsel. During the 30-day period following a deposition, all Parties will treat the entire deposition transcript as if it had been designated Confidential.

8. If at any time before the termination of this action a Producing Party realizes that it should have designated as Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only some portion(s) of Discovery Material that it previously produced without limitation, the Producing Party may so designate such material by notifying all Parties in writing. Thereafter, all persons subject to this Order will treat such designated portion(s) of the Discovery Material as Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only. In addition, the Producing Party shall provide each other Party with replacement versions of such Discovery Material that bears the “Confidential” or “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” designation within two business days of providing such notice.

9. Nothing contained in this Order will be construed as: (a) a waiver by a Party or person of its right to object to any discovery request; (b) a waiver of any privilege or protection; or (c) a ruling regarding the admissibility at trial of any document, testimony, or other evidence.

10. Where a Producing Party has designated Discovery Material as Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only, other persons subject to this Order may disclose such information only to the following persons:

- (a) the Parties to this action, their insurers, and counsel to their insurers;
- (b) counsel retained specifically for this action, including any paralegal, clerical, or other assistant that such outside counsel employs and assigns to this matter;

- (c) in-house counsel for the Parties to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for the prosecution or defense of this action;
- (d) outside vendors or service providers (such as copy-service providers and document-management consultants) that counsel hire and assign to this matter;
- (e) any mediator or arbitrator that the Parties engage in this matter or that this Court appoints, provided such person has first executed a Non-Disclosure Agreement in the form annexed as Exhibit A hereto;
- (f) as to any document, its author, its addressee, and any other person indicated on the face of the document as having received a copy;
- (g) any witness who counsel for a Party in good faith believes may be called to testify at trial or deposition in this action, provided such person has first executed a Non-Disclosure Agreement in the form annexed as Exhibit A hereto;
- (h) any person a Party retains to serve as an expert witness or otherwise provide specialized advice to counsel in connection with this action, provided such person has first executed a Non-Disclosure Agreement in the form annexed as Exhibit A hereto;
- (i) stenographers engaged to transcribe depositions the Parties conduct in this action; and
- (j) this Court, including any appellate court, its support personnel, and court reporters.

11. A Producing Party may disclose Discovery Material designated as Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only only to those individuals or parties identified in 10(b)-(j).

12. Before disclosing any Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only Discovery Material to any person referred to in subparagraphs 10(e), 10(g), or 10(h) above, counsel must provide a copy of this Order to such person, who must sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement in the form annexed as Exhibit A hereto stating that he or she has read this Order and agrees to be bound by its terms. Said counsel must retain each signed Non-Disclosure Agreement, hold it in escrow, and produce it to opposing counsel either before such person is permitted to testify (at deposition or trial) or at the conclusion of the case, whichever comes first.

13. Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only Discovery Material shall not be inputted into any generative artificial intelligence tool or platform (i.e. ChatGPT, Google Bard, Microsoft CoPilot, etc.) or any substantially similar tool with the exception of secure electronic discovery platforms in which access is limited to attorneys of record in this Action as described in Paragraph 10(b). Providing Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only Discovery Material to such a tool or platform beyond the limited exception outlined in this paragraph is considered disclosure to a third party.

14. This Order binds the Parties and certain others to treat as Confidential any Discovery Materials so classified. The Court has not, however, made any finding regarding the confidentiality of any Discovery Materials, and retains full discretion to determine whether to afford confidential treatment to any Discovery Material designated as Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only hereunder. All persons are placed on notice that the Court is unlikely to seal or otherwise afford confidential treatment to any Discovery Material introduced into evidence at trial, even if such material has previously been sealed or designated as Confidential or Confidential

– Attorneys’ Eyes Only.

15. In filing Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only Discovery Material with this Court, or filing portions of any pleadings, motions, or other papers that disclose such Confidential Discovery Material (“Confidential Court Submission”), the Parties shall publicly file a redacted copy of the Confidential Court Submission via the Electronic Case Filing System. In accordance with Rule 4(A) of the Court’s Individual Rules of Practice in Civil Cases, the Parties shall file an unredacted copy of the Confidential Court Submission under seal with the Clerk of this Court, and the Parties shall serve this Court and opposing counsel with unredacted courtesy copies of the Confidential Court Submission. In accordance with Rule 4(A) of this Court’s Individual Rules of Practice in Civil Cases, any Party that seeks to file Confidential Discovery Material under seal must file an application and supporting declaration justifying—on a particularized basis—the sealing of such documents. The parties should be aware that the Court will unseal documents if it is unable to make “specific, on the record findings . . . demonstrating that closure is essential to preserve higher values and is narrowly tailored to serve that interest.” Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 120 (2d Cir. 2006).

16. Any Party who objects to any designation of confidentiality may at any time before the trial of this action serve upon counsel for the Producing Party a written notice stating with particularity the grounds of the objection. If the Parties cannot reach agreement promptly, counsel for all affected Parties will address their dispute to this Court in accordance with paragraph 2(C) of this Court’s Individual Practices.

17. Any Party who requests additional limits on disclosure, may at any time before the trial of this action serve upon counsel for the recipient Parties a written notice stating with particularity the grounds of the request. If the Parties cannot reach agreement promptly, counsel for all affected Parties will address their dispute to this Court in accordance with Rule 2(C) of this Court's Individual Rules of Practice in Civil Cases.

18. Recipients of Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Discovery Material under this Order may use such material solely for the prosecution and defense of this action and any appeals thereto, and not for any other purpose or in any other litigation proceeding. Nothing contained in this Order, however, will affect or restrict the rights of any Party with respect to its own documents or information produced in this action.

19. Nothing in this Order will prevent any Party from producing any Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Discovery Material in its possession in response to a lawful subpoena or other compulsory process, or if required to produce by law or by any government agency having jurisdiction, provided that such Party gives written notice to the Producing Party as soon as reasonably possible, and if permitted by the time allowed under the request, at least 10 days before any disclosure. Upon receiving such notice, the Producing Party will bear the burden to oppose compliance with the subpoena, other compulsory process, or other legal notice if the Producing Party deems it appropriate to do so.

20. Each person who has access to Discovery Material designated as Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only pursuant to this Order must take all due precautions to prevent the unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure of such material.

21. Within 60 days of the final disposition of this action—including all appeals— all recipients of Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Discovery Material must either return it—including all copies thereof— to the Producing Party, or, upon permission of the Producing Party, destroy such material— including all copies thereof. In either event, by the 60-day deadline, the recipient must certify its return or destruction by submitting a written certification to the Producing Party that affirms that it has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, or other forms of reproducing or capturing any of the Confidential or Confidential –

Attorneys' Eyes Only Discovery Material. Notwithstanding this provision, the attorneys that the Parties have specifically retained for this action may retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, expert reports, legal memoranda, correspondence, or attorney work product, even if such materials contain Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Discovery Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Discovery Material remain subject to this Order.

22. This Order will survive the termination of the litigation and will continue to be binding upon all persons subject to this Order to whom Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only Discovery Material is produced or disclosed.

23. This Court will retain jurisdiction over all persons subject to this Order to the extent necessary to enforce any obligations arising hereunder or to impose sanctions for any contempt thereof.

SO STIPULATED AND AGREED.
